Banks May Save City Pay Cut Says Curley

Boston bankers may save the 22,000 city and county employees from a salary cut by a lower interest rate to the city, Mayor Curley indicated today. But because he has not been definitely assured how much lower, this 3.5 per cent will be Monday's loan of $2,000,000 to continue his survey of $1,500,000,000.

BOND DEFAULT CAUSES RIFT

A committee, to represent the bondholders of W. W. Shaw & Co. of New York, and to take legal steps against the firm, is expected to be appointed here today or tomorrow.

According to charges more than 7000 New England investors are said to have placed more than $10,000,000 in bonds, which have been defaulted by the company. Legal representatives of the company have declared the charges against the concern are "malicious" and without foundation.

According to them everything possible has been done and will be done to protect the New England investors. Atty. Barton Corcoran stated that out of 20 bonds for the aggregate principal sum, 19 had been retired at full pay and interest or better by the close of 1932.

Pretzels Turn the Corner

Remember the old days when we called a pretzel a cracker with the cramps?

That was a good old vaudeville gag. We're warning you that you've got to get used to it again.

The pretzel leaders are twisting them by the millions this week.

They're selling looking things and look like hard-wine pastry. Yet, they mean that the hotel business of America has rounded the corner.

Where you see a pretzel you will see a glass of beer in front of it. You must wash a pretzel down. It won't wait.

The hotel owners have taken a year nap in silence. All they could serve was coffee. The pretzel will press you can catch more customers with salt than you can with sugar.

Troop Candidates Face New Examinations

Hopes of some 12,000 would-be scout troops were dashed today when two lists of possible applicants were thrown away by Brig-Gen. Daniel Needham, temporary commander of public affairs.

A new list "that is not dictated by politicians" will be made up of fit vacancies in the troop, these being eight such vacancies now and "more to come soon," according to the new examination.

Pastor Missing; Nails Up Church

With Sunday just around the corner, parishioners of St. Michael's Russian Orthodox Church, Lynn, did not know today whether they would be able to conduct services in the edifice.

When 100 members arrived at the church where it is located at South and Summer sts., Lynn, they found the doors nailed up. An official guard entrance through an open cellar window and after some delay opened the doors.

The congregation has been commended in recent months following the dismissal of a former priest and the installation of a new clergyman in his place.

'THE COSSACK' TO BE FILMED AGAIN LEILA HYAMS IN CIRCUS THRILLER

Lawrence Tibbett Is Expected to Play Leading Role in Operatic Version

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

Universal Feature Motion Picture

Los Angeles, March 23—Logical, I should say and more than just a mere guess, that Lawrence Tibbett will play the chief role in an operatic version of "The Cossack." Yes, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has gone down in the archives and dug up this old number. Herbert Stothart will write the musical score and from all I hear it's destined to be one of M-G-M's specials.

Remember how dashing, how gay and handsome John Gilbert was as the Cossack? The uniform was very becoming

to him and the role was one that suit him

down to the ground. The

the stage was in "The Cossack."

Catchy Tunes

My guess is that the music in Marion Davies picture, "Pago My Heart," will be played and sung in every case with the best of results. Herbert Stothart, famous composer who has scored the music, has done a great piece of work. "Sweetheart, Darling, and "Boys and Girls" have a swing to them that makes the old foot to tap gay. Gus Kahn has written the lyrics to the Stothart music. In these catchy, dainty-to-be-heard songs, another song number that will make the world want to hear is contributed by Herb

Nacio Brown.

Musical comedies are the thing in every studio at least in order way. Heard today that "College Humor" will be a real musical with a good chorus.

Richard Arlen, and I don't know
